

- PROJECT OPERATIONS ENGINEER -

Référence : 03120

For one of our client on a major industrial project, Wise Lab and Energia are looking for a Project Operations Engineer.

Responsibilities

- Ensures that the offshore spreads are prepared and ready for offshore operations with a particular attention to certification, bridging documentation, SIMOPS
- Second the IOM to ensure that the installation spreads have full support, in terms of local logistics, supplies and equipment
- Assists project installation engineers, field engineers for vessel readiness and mobilization activities in Senegal. Ensures project equipment is mobilised in an efficient and timely manner
- Liaise with and supervise the Marine Supply Base subcontractor
- Execute any specific mobilization activities, including development of procedures, task plans, lift plans, as instructed
- Coordinate material tracking activity through the project's material tracker, and ensure equipment inspection, readiness, delivery, tracking & demobilisation
- Liaise with Company MWS for inspection and issuance of ready for load-out or sail-away certificates (in Dakar port), with various local subcontractors as necessary
- Liaise with Company on-site, with regards to Load-out activities, in terms of method, planning, readiness & execution.
- Ensure that all work performed complies with the requirements of the Project and is carried out in accordance with the rules and the methods of the Group

Experience and Qualifications

- Past experience in a similar position (5-8 years at least, mainly offshore operations as field engineer or installation engineer, knowledge of transportation planning, lift planning...)
- Experience as seafarer or marine officer would be a plus even though not mandatory
- Engineering background is a plus
- High-level knowledge of logistics field is a plus
- Good coordination skills and availability
- Good communication skills and accurate reporting
- Good knowledge of spoken and written English mandatory
- Available ASAP

Position to be filled ASAP

Working location : Dakar

One year contract, potential permanent contract at the end

Please send your application files with 03120 in reference and your resume in pdf version to recrutement@wiselab.tech.